January 13, 2010

Dear ISG-Dammam High School Students and Parents,

Our semester exams will be Monday, January 25, 2010 through Wednesday, January 27, 2010. Students need to attend classes on Saturday and Sunday, January 23 and January 24 for formal review with their teachers.

Examinations will begin Monday, January 25 with a special schedule for Period One and Two classes including a brief study time for each. The same schedule is set for Periods Three and Four on Tuesday, January 26 and ending on Wednesday, January 27 with Periods Six and Seven exams.

The semester exams are comprehensive and will cover materials from both first and second quarters. Students need to have an understanding of the materials being covered in the classroom. It is not sufficient to simply memorize facts for these exams.

It is very important that students begin studying for these exams well before testing week. Make sure that a proper study time is set for each evening beginning upon receipt of this letter. Students should be sure to get a good night's sleep the evenings before each exam. Staying up all night to study will do more harm than good as students will simply be too tired to concentrate during the exams.

All students have been instructed of testing procedures in an assembly earlier this month and will receive further instructions from their teachers. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to call or stop by either the High School Vice Principal's or Counselors' offices.

Sincerely,

Vineeta Dambal
